(54) Title: ISOLATION AND USE OF DECAY FUNGI

(57) Abstract: The invention relates to methods for the isolation and development of fungi useful in the enhancement of wood or wood products quality and/or wood or wood products processing, and the decay fungi so developed. Compositions comprising or including decay fungi and methods for the use of said decay fungi and/or compositions are also provided. The decay fungi, compositions and methods are useful to provide improved cellulosic pulp production and/or wood and/or wood products of enhanced quality from non-sterilized wood.
